Dear Friend of the Steve Rummler HOPE Network,

According to preliminary 2020 data released by MDH, drug overdoses increased 27% from 2019 to 2020. The opioid epidemic has reached a critical point in the midst of the COVID-19 pandemic, with synthetic opioids poisoning even non-opioid drug supplies and driving an 80% increase in fentanyl-related deaths.

Last year, the Steve Rummler HOPE Network (SRHN) worked tirelessly to continue to meet the needs of our communities and adapt our programs to fit in a largely virtual world. Despite pandemic limitations, SRHN saw many organization successes:

- Distributed 13,273 overdose rescue kits in the state of Minnesota, which is almost 40,000 doses of naloxone — the lifesaving opioid overdose antidote. This is nearly a 33% increase in kits distributed from 2019.
- Trained 1,156 individuals on how to recognize and reverse an opioid overdose and how to administer naloxone to save a life.
- Developed a free and publicly accessible online overdose prevention training module to expand our outreach as stay-at-home orders limited community training capacity.
- Established partnerships with 25 Minnesota treatment centers, pharmacies, and nonprofit organizations to act as naloxone pickup sites on behalf of SRHN. The pickup sites, or Naloxone Access Points (NAPs), which are located all over the state, stock SRHN naloxone kits at their facilities for anyone to easily access if they are in need.

At the Steve Rummler HOPE Network, we measure our true success not by numbers but by hope. Each naloxone kit we hand out is someone's hope for a chance at recovery. Each health care provider we educate on effective pain management is someone's hope for care that is focused on their individual wellness. Each bill that we support is our collective hope for meaningful, community-based change aimed at ending the opioid epidemic.

The past year has, at times, felt anything but hopeful; but our work is far from done. SRHN will be hosting our fifth annual gala, Reconnecting with Hope, on Friday, October 29, 2021. We are contacting you today to see if you are able to join us in our fight against the opioid crisis by sponsoring our gala. Please see the attached sponsorship information sheet for details. We offer a wide range of sponsorship opportunities and we simply cannot succeed without your support! If sponsorship isn't an option for you, we are also taking items for our live and silent auction, so please let us know if you'd like to donate!

Thank you in advance for your consideration. We look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Alicia House
